

Order SND/307/2020 of 30 March provides that employees who are required to continue working because they are not eligible for recoverable paid leave have the right to request the company to issue a declaration of liability for this circumstance.

The liability declaration model is incorporated as an annex in order to facilitate the necessary journeys between the place of residence and the place of work.

On the other hand, the Order makes it clear that:

- ✓ Royal Decree 463/2020 of 14 March only affects self-employed workers who provide their services in activities suspended by the declaration of the state of alarm.
- ✓ Royal Decree-Law 10/2020 of 29 March does not affect self-employed workers.
- ✓ Trade union and employer representation activities are not affected by mobility restrictions in order to ensure advice to workers and employers.
